A MESSAGE FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Welcome to Fall 2021 Message

Dear All:

Welcome to the Fall semester of 2021.

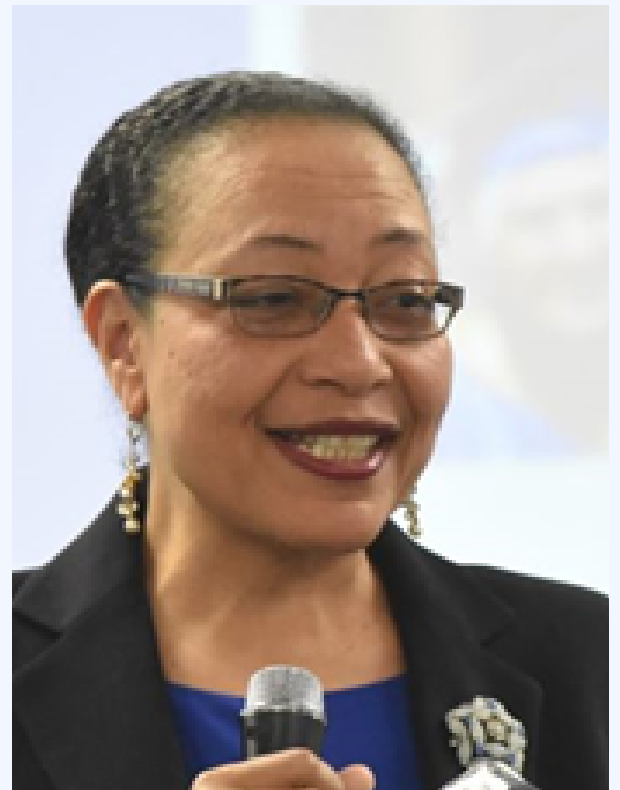

This is a challenging, yet exciting time as we transition to more in-person activities in New York City. The pandemic is not over, so we must adjust and get on with our lives. Be reminded that as per New York State guidelines all BEOC students who attend in-person classes or activities on site must be vaccinated. Therefore students who are scheduled to begin in-person classes in September and October should have been vaccinated already or planning to be vaccinated. Students will receive directions on how to verify their vaccination status.

As we navigate the return to more in-person activities, we welcome back all staff who are currently working on-site a few days each week. We look forward to a time that all faculty, staff, and students can share in events and activities. In the meantime, continue to maintain social distancing and wear face coverings indoors.

I wish you all an excellent semester.

Thank you,

Jacinth V. Hanson, Ed.D.

WHO HELPED SHAPE AMERICA?

Workforce Opportunity Services (WOS), a leading non-profit organization connecting individuals from underserved populations with transformative career opportunities, is hosting a free online National Portrait Gallery Visual Arts series. Each session is designed to expand your horizon in the arts.

Join them as they take a journey through the National Portrait Gallery. The mission of the National Portrait Gallery is to tell the story of America by portraying the people who shape the nation's history, development, and culture. Areas they will cover in this series include:

- Portraiture 101: Introduction to Portraiture and the NPG - 9/22 at 5 p.m.
- Hung Liu: Portraits of Promised Lands - 9/29 at 5 p.m.
- Issues of Representation: Limitations of Portraiture - 10/6 at 5 p.m.
- Celebration of Indigenous Cultures - 10/13 at 5 p.m.

Sessions will be presented by Vanessa Jones and Irina Rubenstein.
Each session is free and is provided by Workforce Opportunity Services.
